

REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

JNTUA College of Engineering Kalikiri proudly celebrated International Women's Day on 8th march 2021. This program was organized by Dr. K. Aparna NSS program officer of NSS Unit –1, JNTUACE Kalikiri . There were several events conducted on this occasion. The events include Essay writing competition, Drawing competition, Sports (Throw ball and indoor games).

Essay Writing Competition

Drawing Competition

Throw ball conducted on 5th March 2021

The event has started with a rally in which all the women students and women faculty including NSS volunteers participated.

Rally

Rally

The event has started with the introduction and the importance of the women's day in the auditorium.

The classical performance has started the cultural programmes with the prayer song.

Classical performance

Cultural performances

Cultural performances

Cultural performances

Cultural performances

Cultural performances

The auditorium was filled with the students, their cheers, happiness and joy.

The principal, the vice principal and the heads of various departments spoke on the event and promised the students to give equal opportunity and respect to all the women students in the campus.

The principal Dr. M. Venkateswara rao wished all the women faculty(teaching and non-teaching), students “ a very happy international women’s day” and spoke further to create the awareness among women regarding women empowerment.

The vice principal Dr. C. Subhas spoke about the importance of women education to the society and to the family.

The NSS Program Officer of NSS Unit-1, Dr. Aparna spoke about the history of discrimination, inequalities and violence against women.

The heads of various departments addressed the gathering on various topics of gender inequality, equal opportunities, harassment and self-defence.

Head of Mechanical Department- Dr Nag Prasad Naidu

Head of CSE Department- Dr. Nazeera

The women faculty spoke about the physical abuse and sexual harassment against women and the ways to overcome such problems.

Some of the students spoke about the gender inequality; problems faced by the women in society and suggested the solutions to come across those issues.

Student from I Year

The event had ended with the prize distribution to the winners and runners of all competitions.

Sports winners (Throw ball)- CIVIL

Sports runners (Throw ball)- CSE

Essay writing Competition winner- Nandini IECE

Drawing Competition runner- Ashwini I FDT

The event was a grand success and the auditorium was filled with cheers, happiness and joy of students.

S.NO	Name of The college	Name of the Programme	No Of Participants
1	JNTUA College of Engineering Kalikiri	International Women's Day	Girls students including NSS Volunteers -470 Teaching Staff-40 Nonteaching staff-25 Out Sourcing Employees - 30 Hostel Employees-20 Total=585